THE NIGHT VISITOR

She knew she had reason to fear him -- but Kit Cameron saw something more than danger in the desperate fugitive who came to her lonely mountain cabin night after night. She saw the man within, a man who left simple gifts of wildflowers as thanks for the help she offered-and left her dreaming of his touch.

Race Barkley had known precious little kindness in his life, and even less love. But he knew that a man on the run -- from a ruthless killer, and from his own shadowed past -- couldn't afford to believe in love, or even in tomorrow. And yet this woman made him feel that maybe, just maybe, there could be a tomorrow for him -- if he lived past today...
